SEC Action Lookup – Individuals

About this Feature

The SEC Action Lookup \(https://www.sec.gov/litigations/sec-action-look-up\) feature allows you to look up information about individuals who have been named as defendants in SEC federal court actions or respondents in SEC administrative proceedings.

Your search results will only include individuals charged in SEC actions filed between certain dates, as detailed on the SEC Action Lookup \(https://www.sec.gov/litigations/sec-action-look-up\) webpage.

Search results will include individuals against whom a court has entered a judgement or the Commission has issued an order. This includes individuals who settled, defaulted, or contested their actions, provided a judgement or order was issued against them. Your results will not include individuals whose cases are currently pending at the trial court or those against whom no judgement or order has been issued.

When making decisions about investments and investment professionals, you should not solely use this tool. For other resources and tools, see Information for the Individual Investor \(/research-before-you-invest\) or visit Investor.gov \(/\) .
